

HARPENDEN COMMON GOLF CLUB – LADIES SECTION HANDBOOK

ECLECTIC – 18 Holes (Winter)

1st October to 31st March (inclusive) max. 12 cards (Amended February 2021)

Open to all lady members. Entrance fee £2.00 payable before playing first round.

Procedure for playing:

- 1 Sign the Eclectic Book and enter date before each round. On completion of first round, enter all your scores on your eclectic card kept in the box.
- 2 For subsequent rounds, only enter improved scores against appropriate holes.
- 3 Your card may be played on any day, but if played on the Ladies' Competitions Days, it must be in an individual approved competition e.g. Medal or Stableford (not a team competition). An eclectic card cannot be marked in a match play competition.
- 4 Once a player has signed the book showing intent to play, the card, whether completed or not, will count as one of the 12 cards.
- 5 Approved starting places must be used and the holes must be played consecutively.
- 6 The competition may be played on temporary greens.
- 7 On completion of your last card, enter the handicap which you hold on 31 March, in the space provided on the eclectic card and sign the card. The handicap you hold on 31 March will be used to calculate the winner.
- 7 Number of entrants to be split into two equal divisions A and B. Prizes for A and B – 1st 60%, 2nd 40%

Deduction of ½ course handicap.

PRIZE: Trophy (previously Winter Eclectic Bowls) and voucher for the winner and voucher for the runner up, which will be presented at the Spring Meeting. 100% of fees paid to be used for vouchers.

Silver Rose Bowls