

Ladies Section Newsletter dated 3rd May 2023

Thanks to Gill Foster who admirably carried out her duties as Acting Ladies Captain in the Month of April.

Next week is the Spring Meeting and there will be a raffle held. If anyone has anything to donate to the raffle prizes then could they please bring them up and leave them in the raffle box in the changing rooms before play next Tuesday. Thank you.

The Ladies Scratch team had their first match at home against West Herts last week. They lost 3 -2 but it was close and the West Herts ladies were demon putters.

A friendly match took place with Redbourn ladies last week. It was played in the new format of two ladies from HCGC playing with 2 ladies from Redbourn rather than against them. Therefore there is no winning club, just a winning four ladies.

There is another friendly with Mill Green on Thursday 4th May. Enjoy the day if you are playing and representing HCGC.

Two competitions to sign up for: Both of these can be entered via the Dashboard tab on the V1 App.

The Midsummer Mixed on Saturday 27th May at 1pm. Teams of four, choose your partners.

The Tant Trophy, this is a club mixed match to be held on the Bank Holiday Monday 29th May.

Please be aware that if you have entered and paid for Tuesday's competition then the results should be entered into the computer in the foyer even if they are pairs competitions, such as a 4BBB, greensome or foresomes, not just singles competitions.

Prim Tarry has asked that I pass on her gratitude and that of her family, to all the members that have sent cards and messages of sympathy following the sad loss of her husband Alan.

Results of this weeks competition The Presidents Putter. 4BBB

1 st	Sheila Stewart and Ginny St John Glew	42 points	£10 each
2 nd	Jane Walter and Trixie Coates	41 points	£ 8 each
3 rd	Sarah Topping and Sheila Brockett	40 points	£ 5 each

The winners Sheila and Ginny will go forward to play the winning men's pair later in the year on Finals weekend in September. Good luck.

The draw for playing partners for the Spring Meeting on 9th May was completed. The start sheet with times will be emailed separately and also now placed on the notice board. Your scorecards will be available in the changing room. There is a Coronation theme to the prizes as it is at the end of the Coronation Bank Holiday weekend.
