

Ladies Notices for 5 March 2024

Well, it was still rather wet and muddy out there, but the sun poked through today and there are definite signs that drier weather is on the way. (Definitely missed my vocation as weather forecaster!) Once again, the conditions didn't prevent our intrepid ladies from putting in some very good scores.

Lady Captain's Away Day 16th April at Brookmans Park

You can sign up now on ClubV1 under Booking. Any problems with that just let me know.

9 Hole Texas Scramble on Tuesday 12 March

We await notification next week to see whether a trolley ban will be in place. Sheila will send out instructions in advance to inform you how to work out your playing handicaps for this competition, and a draw will take place in the changing room on the day. The Texas Scramble is obviously open to 9 hole ladies.

Congratulations

Our congratulations go to our very own Jane Walter who was voted President Elect at the recent AGM of Hertfordshire Golf. Jane is going to be very busy and we will no doubt see less of her, but we wish her good luck and all the best in her new role in the coming years.

Very well done to the Pearson team who drew their match away at Great Hadham 3 ½ to 3 ½. We had a moral victory as our winning ladies won their matches more comfortably than our opponents!

Mixed competitions

Mixed V Mid Herts (H). Sunday 24 March. Sign up in the foyer of the Club House. Please see the email sent out by the Club on the 29th Feb for more details.

Mixed Knockout

5 day ladies are now eligible to enter the Mixed Knockout. There are men queuing up to play with us, so contact Brian McDonald and sign up online before this weekend when the draw is taking place!

Optional Competitions

If you are looking to play more competitions during the week and/or at weekends, there are optional club competitions which can be entered by any gender. These are Wednesday competitions marked as Midweek Q Stableford and Midweek Q Medal. In addition there are often some optional competitions on a Saturday and Sunday (nearly always Stableford) which can be entered too. Look out for these on the club online diary.
