Congratulations to all the winners.

Next week's competition – Phyl Tearle

Just a reminder that the Bronze division go out first in pairs, followed by the Silver in threes, so the draw for the Bronze ladies will be a little earlier than usual.

Lady Captain's Away Day 16th April at Brookmans Park

Brookmans Park have requested that I inform them of numbers by the 2nd April, so if you are thinking of signing up please do so before then. Also if you haven't already informed me of dietary requirements can you let me know. More information regarding the day to follow. Many thanks.

Congratulations

Well done to the Pearson team who played on Monday against Porters Park and won 5:2 ! Special thanks to Sheila Brockett who stepped in as a replacement at the last moment, and who also won her match!

Congratulations to the 18 ladies from our Harpenden Common Wednesday bridge club who played in the winter bridge matches, winning 4 out of 8 very friendly and enjoyable matches.

Ladies Academy

The ladies academy held its first group session last Thursday. These sessions are also available to members at a cost of £25 per sessions and can be booked online or in the Pro shop.

Request for help to deliver flyers in Harpenden

We now have a small flyer with details on both academy offers. We planned to initially deliver to streets in West Common, East Common and The Avenues.

If you have time available to help deliver some flyers can you please contact Beth. Your help would be much appreciated. If you are aware of other streets that would be worth targeting with flyers then please let us know.
